Just when I thought the micro home/green living movement couldn't get any more creative and funky, I find this concept: homes made from old cabooses and railway cars.. My mind whirled with the possibilities. Can you imagine? It's like "The Boxcar Children", but for grownups! (Important aside: The Boxcar Children were some of my favorite books growing up, which might explain my current ...

The tiny-house movement (also known as the "small-house movement") is an architectural and social movement that advocates living simply in small homes. As of 2018 there is no set definition as to what constitutes a tiny house. However, a residential structure under 500 square feet (46 m<sup>2</sup>) is generally considered [by whom?] a tiny home. The tiny-house movement promotes financial prudence ...
